ADVISOR

Sam Prestwich
Neuroscience Academic and Career Advisor
1041 JFSB
(801) 422–3541
sam_prestwich@byu.edu

INTERNET RESOURCES

- Neuroguide – Neurosciences on the Internet
  neuroguide.com
- The Society for Clinical Neuropsychology
  scn40.org
- Society for Neuroscience
  sfn.org
- NeuroJobs
  neurojobs.sfn.org/jobs
- Databases for Neuroscience Internships people.rit.edu/~gtfsbi/Symp/Neuroscience.htm
- Choices in Neuroscience Careers nature.com/articles/nrn2386
- American Psychological Association
  apa.org

CAMPUS RESOURCES

- Alumni Career Website
  alumnicareers.byu.edu
- BYU Neuroscience Center
  S192 ESC
  (801)422–1218
  neuroscience.byu.edu
- Pre-Professional Advisement
  3328 WSC
  (801)422–3044
  ppa.byu.edu
- BYU Career Services
  2410 WSC
  (801)422–6535
  careers.byu.edu

IMPROVE YOUR MARKETABILITY

- Work at internships
- Learn another language
- Network with professors, supervisors, and other community leaders.
- Gain volunteer or research experience, or patient contact hours.
- Develop exceptional communication skills.
- Learn to work well with different types of people.

A GUIDE TO CAREER OPTIONS IN:
NEUROSCIENCE
Examples of Careers in Neuroscience

Humanities
- Editor of a scientific journal
- Manufacturer of science education materials
- Scientific journalist
- Science textbook writer
- Artist specializing in brain diagrams
- Design scientific education material
- Media Placement
- Global health reporting
- Health-related grant coordinator
- Non-profit data analysis
- Public health program grants specialist

Business and Politics
- Congressional advisor (advise on neuro issues)
- Work for a governmental office or department
- Global infectious disease analyst
- Healthcare policy analyst
- Chief Scientific Officer (CSO)
- Marketing/Advertising consultant
- Neuroeconomist consultant
- Library (medical) consulting
- Lobbyist for neuro foundations
- Private consulting firm

STEM
- Full-time researcher
- Higher Education Lecturer
- Professor/Teacher
- Social Research
- Clinical psychologist
- Nutritionist
- Occupational therapist
- Optometrist
- Pharmacist
- Physician (MD or DO)
- Physicians’ assistant (PA)
- HIV/AIDS research associate

Current Careers of Alumni:
46% Medicine / Healthcare
24% Education / Research
9% Business / Administration
5% Other
4% Military
3% Architecture / Engineering
3% Law
3% Marketing / Media / Communication
3% Information Technology