

(B) FOLD OVER

(C)
FOLD OVER

(B) FOLD OVER

GOLIATH

(D)
FOLD DOWN ALONG
DOTTED LINES
AND ATTACH PAPER - CLIP TO NOSE OF PLANE

BEETLE

(A)
FOLD IN HALF
ALONG DOTTED LINE
THEN LAY FLAT AGAIN

African Goliath Beetle
The heaviest, but not the largest beetle in the world,
it is a high flier often seen around the tops of palms in primeval forests. Some specimens are larger than five inches long and native children like to attach them to strings and fly them like kites.

©1992

MONTE L. BEAN
Life Science Museum

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY