Emily Jayne Robinson

Language Immersion Student Residence Scholarship

Description: The Emily Jayne Robinson Scholarship Fund generously supports BYU students pursuing a degree in a French program. Among those eligible to receive funds are students living in the French apartments at BYU’s Language Immersion Student Residence (LISR).

Amount: According to discretion of Gift Fund Committee, scholarships of $200 - $500 will be awarded and disbursed during the present semester.

Qualifications: Applicants must be full-time students of BYU-Provo and residents of the French apartments in the LISR who are currently declared as a French major/minor, French Studies secondary major, or French Teaching major/minor. Additionally, students must have at least a 3.0 GPA. Although preference will be given to students with relatively greater financial need and who are French speaking students from Africa, other students' applications will be fully considered.

To Apply: Applicants can visit https://forms.gle/qQtRHB6bCrBGQ18u9 to access the application and submit the following required materials:
- Current CV (in English; 8.5x11 format)
- Current BYU grade report
- A 100-150 word letter of motivation for studying French (in English; 8.5x11 format)

Additional Requirements: Recipients of the scholarship will be required to submit a brief letter (Approximately 1 page, in English) written to the Emily Jayne Robinson family. The letter serves as a way for the donor family to learn about the students who receive the scholarship and how the fund is helping them accomplish their educational and professional goals. This letter must be submitted to the Gift & Scholarship Fund Committee (see contact email, below) before the funds are disbursed.

Application Deadline: September 21, 2022
