Summary:

China is on the march. As Beijing prepares for the 2008 Summer Olympic Games, it is envisioning a new political dawn for a growing nation, and is ready to invite the world to see its progress.

From the steamy kitchens of Canton, to the arid moonscape of the north, food is the very heart and soul of China. But increasing development and dwindling water supplies are threatening the nation's ability to feed itself.

Vocabulary: Main vocabulary that is used in the DVD.

1. Metropolis (noun) — A very large and populated city.

Ex: New York city is said to be a metropolis because of how many people live there.

2. Prosperous (adj) — successful; wealthy

Ex: Mark became very prosperous after he won his bet in the lottery.

3. Irrigate (verb) — To supply water to help something grow.

Ex: John irrigated the plants by digging a man-made stream to the farm.

4. Reform (noun) — The action or process of changing an institution or organization and its practices.
