Plant and Wildlife Sciences Exception Scholarship Application

Academic Year 2019-2020

Instructions: Please complete the entire application. Incomplete applications will not be considered for scholarships.

International incoming freshmen must submit an ACT or SAT score in order to be considered for scholarships with an academic component.

Transfer students are eligible for academic scholarships. Please check each term for which you wish to be considered for scholarships:

Choose One: ___ Undergraduate Student ___ Graduate Student

Indicate which semesters you are applying for:

___ Fall Semester ________ (year)
___ Winter Semester ________ (year)
___ Spring Semester ________ (year)
___ Summer Semester ________ (year)

Name: _______________________________

BYU ID:___________________________

Major Area:_____________________

Major GPA:________

BYU GPA:________

Hours Completed:__________

If Transfer Student:

Name of Previous College/University_______________________________________

Previous College/University GPA___________________________________________
Please complete the following personal information:

Country of Citizenship: ________________________________

Home Country: ________________________________

Home State: ________________________________

Home County (Not Country): ________________________________

Hometown/City: ________________________________

Home Stake & Ward (if LDS): ________________________________

What is the primary language you speak in your home? ______________________

What generation college student are you? ______________________

If you are of American Indian/Alaska Native descent and wish the considered for multicultural scholarships, please provide your federally recognized census/enrollment number: ______________________

Name of federally recognized tribe/Indian nation: ______________________

Please write a brief biographical sketch about yourself. Limit your response to about 300 words:

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________
Please describe your educational, professional, and other goals. Describe how BYU will help you achieve them. Limit your response to about 300 words.
International Experience: Excluding a mission, have you lived internationally for at least 1 year or more?  _____ YES  _____ NO

OR

Are you doing research with an international component to it?  _____ YES  _____ NO

If yes, please describe your experience in about 100 words or less:

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

Please list and/or describe your participations and leadership during the last three years in extracurricular activities, including performing groups, athletics, cultural and civic clubs, and church and community service. Also, include in this paragraph any reason you might qualify for a scholarship as a “needs-based” candidate. Limit your response to about 300 words.

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________